

Westerly Track & Athletic Club

20th Annual Li'l Rhody Runaround

8 - mile Trail Race

Date: Sunday, November 20th, 2011

Time: 11am; Registration begins at 9:30am

Location: Burlingame State Park, Sanctuary Road, Charlestown, RI
(off Prosser Trail off Route 1 South, see directions on web site)

Course: Come enjoy a fast, flat trail run in one of Rhode Island's most beautiful state parks. The Lil' Rhody is a 8 mile loop starting at Prosser Beach at the Burlingame picnic area which follows the Yellow Dot Trail around Watchaug Pond. It covers 5.8 miles of trail through rocks, pine forest, mud and streams, along with 2.1 miles of tarmac. Water stop halfway.

Notice: Though every effort has been made to ensure the safety of all entrants, the majority of this race is on a trail filled with natural obstacles which can cause twisted ankles and other injuries to those not used to racing on uneven terrain.

Each participant and volunteer must wear at least 200 square inches of orange as it is hunting season. Anyone not wearing orange will not be allowed to race per State of RI DEM mandate.

Refreshments: Hot soup and refreshments to all participants
Served in picnic shelter after race

Timing: Provided by SNERRO

Cost: $20 pre-registration, up to November 11th
$25 post-registration, up to day of race
$2 discount to all pre-registered WTAC members
